Ranking based on distribution of the size of the patches of agricultural land cover, amount & percent of prime or statewide important farmland soils and amount & percent of high groundwater recharge within those patches.

Agricultural Density was mapped based on the density of agricultural land cover within approximately a 3 mile (5km) radius. Agricultural lands outside the county boundary were not considered in the analysis.